

Naval Militia patrol boat escorts USS NEW YORK (LPD-21)

The New York Naval Militia is organized into three regional commands:

SOUTHERN COMMAND

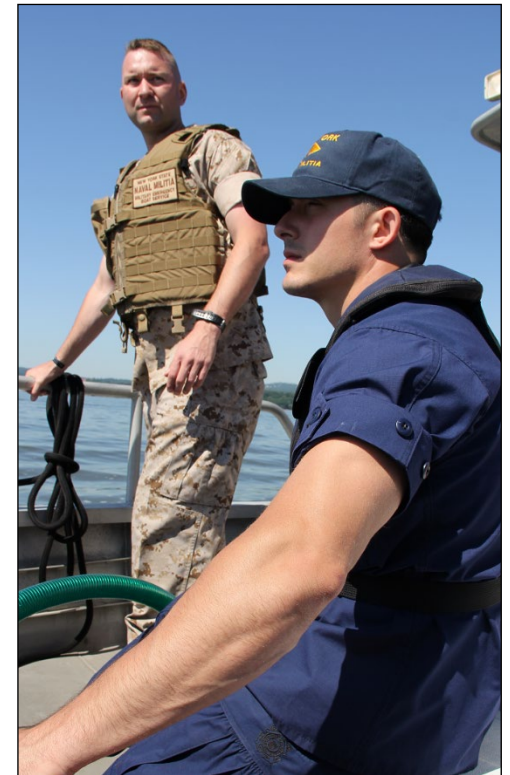

NORTHERN COMMAND

WESTERN COMMAND

NEW YORK NAVAL MILITIA

Medical support.

WHAT IS THE NEW YORK NAVAL MILITIA?

It is the naval component of New York State's military forces. As part of the New York State Division of Military and Naval Affairs, the Naval Militia complements the Army and Air National Guard programs, as well as the New York Guard. We provide support for natural or man-made disasters, technological disasters, and homeland security.

In support of the U.S. Coast Guard commercial vessel inspection program. A Naval Militia patrol boat with a Coast Guard boarding team meets a Saudi freighter off the coast of Long Island.

Largely made up of current and former New York Reservists of the U.S. Coast Guard, Marine Corps or Navy, the New York Naval Militia provides an additional dimension to patriotic military service, military training opportunities and community service.
